

women in real estate 2010

SPECIALIZING IN COMMERCIAL, OFFICE, INDUSTRIAL, RETAIL, LAND AND DEVELOPMENT PROPERTIES

Marie Zere of Zere Real Estate Services broke the glass ceiling over 30 years ago

Marie Zere known better as the famous "Hat Lady"

LONG ISLAND, NY Marie Zere, founder, president and CEO of Zere Real Estate Services is considered a trailblazing pioneer in commercial real estate. She is celebrating her 30th year in business in 2010.

Her firm specializes in the sales and leasing of commercial, office, industrial, retail, land use and development properties. National and international corporations have sought her brokerage expertise as a recognized economic development advocate for the Metro/ Long Island region for decades. She is actively involved in the business communities of Long Island and philanthropic charity causes.

CIBS Black Tie Gala Zere Real Estate Services was nominated for the deal of the year award, business associates and Marie's three children, Michael, Michelle & David Zere

Mercedes Benz Polo Challenge, Southampton, Long Island with Mr. & Mrs. Ted Sasso and daughter Michelle

Marie Zere, 2009 Honoree for the Kidney & Urology Foundation of America

Former president of CIBS, Marie Zere gets a warm greeting from former governor George Pataki

Talking tough issues with former gov. Mario Cuomo about New York State giving more funding to Long Island tax payers

Doug Manditch, CEO, Empire Bank and one of the banks founders, Marie Zere