

Real Estate Journal

COVERING ALL OF LONG ISLAND, NEW YORK CITY AND UPSTATE NEW YORK

RIBBON CUTTING CEREMONY HELD FOR NEW HEADQUARTERS

Zere Real Estate Services celebrates 25th anniversary

ISLIP, NY Veteran commercial real estate broker Marie Zere was joined by town supervisor Pete McGowan and other town and county officials for a ribbon cutting ceremony to mark the opening of the new headquarters of Zere Real Estate Services Inc.

The new, beautifully decorated, state-of-the-art Zere offices are at 2127 Lakeland Ave., Ronkonkoma, strategically located in the Veteran's Memorial Highway-Long Island McArthur Airport Business Corridor. The building is owned by Robert Affenita.

"This grand opening of our new corporate headquarters marks our 25th business anniversary in the commercial real estate industry," said Zere. "It's a tremendous accomplishment and sets the stage for future development projects."

The Zere firm, founded in 1980 by Zere, continues to be run today by Zere and is moving forward with her three children in prominent roles. They are: Michael Paul Zere, executive VP; Michelle Marie Zere, VP for business development; and, David

Shown (from left) are: Angie Carpenter, Suffolk County legislature deputy presiding officer; Zere; McGowan; and William Rowley Jr., Islip town councilman.

Wayne Zere, VP of operations. In addition to the Zeres, the firm employs a team of dynamic, highly trained professionals who work closely with Zere to complete a large variety of deals in the office, industrial and retail markets.

More than half of the firm's business involves transactions within the town. Zere Real Estate, was responsible for bringing the Touro College of Law to Central Islip.